ConQuest Dads Club

Here's a representative image of our cancelled ConQuest Lemont Boys Club meeting. No Lights. The school called Friday afternoon to say they had no power in the gym and we must cancel our meeting. Sorry for the change in schedule. We'll meet next Friday evening and follow the week 2 schedule of our Courage campaign.

This Saturday was our first Dads Club meeting. We want to meet to discuss how well the club is going, what we need to do to improve the club and to nominate boys who should be recognized for their extra efforts during our upcoming Awards Night event.

Let's discuss the time and place of our meeting at our next meeting. What should we do to maximize the number of Dads who participate in the club..

While we didn't meet this week, our community service efforts continued. A Pediatrician has volunteered to contact our Physician friends who might donate medicines for the orphans. The Senior boys can help organize our club to gather up these and other donations as we support hHome Mission; a Catholic mission trip to Vladivostok, Russia ministering to orphaned children there. Medicine, new clothing, sports equipment, toys and school supplies are needed. Mr. Tom McMahon, a friend of our club, will travel to Russia on this important mission and he needs our support. Please let me know if you have someone we should contact. Look on our website Home Page for more information.

To Russia with Love
