

Responsibility Awards Night

Our Awards Night ceremony featured three guest speakers and recognition of several members who significantly contributed to the success of our ConQuest Boys Club.

Three Senior Division boys were recognized for leading the faith and virtue lesson: Francis S., Patrick, W. and Connor P.

Dillon C., a minor seminary student at Sacred Heart Apostolic School in Rolling Prairie, IN made a surprise visit and encouraged the boys to do their best in the club.

We also had three Junior Division boys who were awarded for their work leading the Father/Son boys' faith and virtue lesson: John and Patrick K, and Brendon W.

Judge Tom Murphy
Circuit Court of Cook County

Judge Tom Murphy of Cook County reminded the boys to be responsible, listen to their parents and don't get in trouble and wind up in his courtroom.

Last, Fr. Burke Masters, Vocation Director for the Joliet Diocese, shared his vocation story. He went from the baseball diamond to the priesthood and now is inviting young men to explore their own vocation.

Two squads were recognized for their extra efforts. The Junior Division's Able Squad received a prize for an outstanding Responsibility poster.

Finally, the Junior Division's Charlie Squad won the overall Responsibility campaign with over 16,000 ConQuest points.

Great job, everyone.
