

Pursue a Worthy Objective

Be persistent in the pursuit of worthy objectives despite difficulty and opposition. Show steady persistence in adhering to a course of action, a belief, or a purpose; steadfastness. Know the value of continued effort toward achieving your goals.

This week the boys competed to see which squad could make the best virtue poster. Here the Father / Son boys show their perseverance and Sampson posters.

Omega squad show their stuff.

Dodgeball #1. Get the ball!

Alpha squad explains their poster.

Next Club Meeting: Friday, Apr. 11 at Central School Gym (410 McCarthy) 6:15 - 8:30 pm
Virtue campaign: Perseverance week 4 - Skit competition
Friends are invited to attend. New members may register online.

Next Weekend Retreat: Apr. 11-12-13, Oaklawn Academy, Edgerton, WI

Next Apostolic Event: Friday, Apr. 25, Champions of Faith presentation, St. Daniel the Prophet

Boys, remember to bring your Commitment Card and Home Points worksheet to every meeting. They are worth valuable ConQuest points for your squad and good for you, too.

Visit us online @ www.conquestlemont.org

CONQUESTSM

Forming Tomorrow's Leaders

March 28, 2008

The Junior boys featured their lessons about perseverance and holy hero, St. Patrick. Each squad worked for about 45 minutes to create a poster about the life of St. Patrick and the virtue lessons from the previous two meetings.

Able squad with their poster.

Charlie squad and their poster.

Bravo squad explains their poster.

Delta squad shows their work.

Visit us online @ www.conquestlemont.org

CONQUESTSM

Forming Tomorrow's Leaders

March 28, 2008

During Holy Week several club members and their families participated in missionary work in Chicago. Some of our boys went door-to-door at St. Daniel the Prophet parish and others were downtown conducting a Faith Survey. These boys talked about how they put their faith into action as apostles for Jesus.

Co-worker, J.B. (from France) shared his faith with our Senior boys before leaving for home.

Four brave Catholic missionaries.

J.B. leads the Seniors' gospel reflection.

Br. Stephen talks to our missionaries.

Dodgeball #2, a battle to the end.

Visit us online @ www.conquestlemont.org